

Love + this BOOK

PROPHETS

READING PLAN PART III

WEEK ONE

June 22: Ephesians 1

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

June 23: Ephesians 2

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

June 24: Ephesians 3 - 4

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word "meek" can be translated as "humble" or "powerless." But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

June 25: Ephesians 5 - 6

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

June 26: Psalm 68

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK TWO

June 29: Hosea 1 - 3

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

June 30: Hosea 4 - 7

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word 'heart' as we would use the words 'mind' or "will." The heart was considered the source of an individual's thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

July 1: Hosea 8 - 10

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word "peace" means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God's gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ's Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

July 2: Hosea 11 - 14

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God's values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society's values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

July 3: Psalm 17

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK THREE

July 6: Micah 1 - 2

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

July 7: Micah 3 - 4

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

July 8: Micah 5

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word “meek” can be translated as “humble” or “powerless.” But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

July 9: Micah 6 - 7

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

July 10: Psalm 146

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK FOUR

July 13: Isaiah 1

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

July 14: Isaiah 7 - 8

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word ‘heart’ as we would use the words ‘mind’ or “will.” The heart was considered the source of an individual’s thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

July 15: Isaiah 25 - 26

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word “peace” means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God’s gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ’s Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

July 16: Isaiah 40

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God's values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society's values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

July 17: Isaiah 52 - 53

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK FIVE

July 20: Habakkuk 1

Monday Prayer:

Monday: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

July 21: Habakkuk 2

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

July 22: Habakkuk 3

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word “meek” can be translated as “humble” or “powerless.” But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

July 23: Romans 4

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

July 24: Psalm 32

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK SIX

July 27: Jeremiah 1 - 2

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

July 28: Jeremiah 23 - 25

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word ‘heart’ as we would use the words ‘mind’ or “will.” The heart was considered the source of an individual’s thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

July 29: Jeremiah 29 - 31

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word “peace” means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God’s gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ’s Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

July 30: Jeremiah 38 - 39

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God’s values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society’s values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

July 31: Lamentations 3

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK SEVEN

August 3: Ezekiel 1

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

August 4: Ezekiel 18

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

August 5: Ezekiel 33 - 34

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word "meek" can be translated as "humble" or "powerless." But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

August 6: Ezekiel 37

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

August 7: Ezekiel 43

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK EIGHT

August 10: Daniel 1 - 2

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

August 11: Daniel 3 - 4

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word 'heart' as we would use the words 'mind' or "will." The heart was considered the source of an individual's thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

August 12: Daniel 5 - 6

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word "peace" means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God's gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ's Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

August 13: Daniel 7 - 9

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God's values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society's values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

August 14: Daniel 10-12

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK NINE

August 17: Malachi 1

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

August 18: Malachi 2

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

August 19: Malachi 3 - 4

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word “meek” can be translated as “humble” or “powerless.” But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

August 20: Matthew 3

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

August 21: Matthew 19

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK TEN

August 24: Mark 1

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

August 25: Matthew 6

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word ‘heart’ as we would use the words ‘mind’ or “will.” The heart was considered the source of an individual’s thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

August 26: Matthew 28

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word “peace” means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God’s gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ’s Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

August 27: Acts 28

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God's values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society's values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

August 28: Psalm 149

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK ELEVEN

August 31: Acts 1 - 2

Monday Prayer:

Monday: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven

This beatitude says, "We are not as strong as we think we are. We need help. We cannot lead ourselves or save ourselves." Jesus calls us to realize our spiritual poverty and helplessness and to put our whole trust in God.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize our spiritual bankruptcy...]

September 1: Romans 1

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted

Those who mourn include those grieving the death of a loved one, those in physical pain, and those with a disabling chronic disease. Those who mourn include the hungry, the homeless, the persecuted, the addicted, the mentally ill, those without hope, and those suffering from loneliness. It includes those living in areas plagued by war and violence and famine and sickness. It includes those who choose to sympathize and lament for those who are suffering. It also includes those who feel their own sins and their lack of love for God and for others.

[Prayers for Waterstone to have endurance and the right number of tears...]

September 2: Romans 8

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

The Greek word “meek” can be translated as “humble” or “powerless.” But it is not about being a doormat. Meekness comes from the strength of being centered on God. The meek exercise self-control in all things. Meekness allows us to see the truth about ourselves and others that we can miss when we are being driven by self-interest.

[Prayers for Waterstone to realize lives of meekness because we are centered on God as our strength...]

September 3: Colossians 4

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

In the days when Jesus lived and taught, it was common for people to be dying of hunger and thirst. Both food and water could be scarce. Jesus asks in this beatitude if we want relationship with God as much as a starving person wants food and water.

[Prayers for Waterstone to hunger and thirst for what God wants to give...]

September 4: Psalm 139

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WEEK TWELVE

September 7: Philippians 2

Monday Prayer:

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy

The word “mercy” in Biblical times refers to the undeserved, loving-kindness of God’s actions. In being merciful, we are reflections of God’s Love – a love characterized by sacrifice and action – the Cross.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be a community of mercy...]

September 8: 1 Corinthians 1 - 2

Tuesday Prayer:

Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God

Jesus used the word ‘heart’ as we would use the words ‘mind’ or “will.” The heart was considered the source of an individual’s thoughts, desires and actions. The person was whatever his or her heart was. In Jesus, we see what it was like to be pure in heart. The heart of Jesus was centered - singularly focused - on God and his will.

[Prayers for Waterstone to flourish in purity – to love God with all our heart and strength and soul and mind...]

September 9: 2 Corinthians 4 - 5

Wednesday Prayer:

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God

The word “peace” means more than the absence of conflict. Peace is a condition of completeness or wholeness in which nothing is lacking. When we are at peace, it is a space of well-being – with ourselves, with others and with God. To be peacemakers, we must receive God’s gift of wholeness through the Cross and by his Spirit. This inward peace of Christ’s Living Presence moves us toward others – for peace.

[Prayers for Waterstone to be peacemakers...]

September 10: Galatians 5 - 6

Thursday Prayer:

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Those who have devoted their lives to God, living by God’s values and led in all things by God, are surely going to challenge the systems based on society’s values. Jesus knew persecution, as did the Apostles and the Early Christians. We know that persecution can take many forms – death, imprisonment, shunning, various forms of abuse and hatred.

[Prayers for Waterstone to know resistance to the Gospel and to stand with our sisters and brothers who are being persecuted...]

September 11: Psalm 15

Friday Prayer:

Thanks be to you, God of Christ our Wounded King, for everything he has taught us, for the humble path he has shown us, and for all he has suffered for us and the whole world.

[Space to share aloud with Jesus Christ anything that has welled up in your heart...]

WATERSTONE COMMUNITY CHURCH

5890 S. ALKIRE ST.
LITTLETON, CO 80127

WWW.WATERSTONECHURCH.ORG